

DIALOGUE – 12

TASK 2.12
INTERACTION

CANDIDATE A

In this part of the exam, you are going to take part in a conversation with the other candidate. You have different information about an imaginary situation. The conversation will last about 5 minutes.

A memorable evening

You and your partner have decided to go have a nice meal out. You have both agreed to look for a place in central London so that you can have a drink or two and use public transport to get back home. You are a sports fan and enjoy joining in the cheering and shouting of an excited crowd. You like typical British food and drink. Share the information with your partner and decide which place is best.

THE ESSEX SERPENT

6 Kings Street, Covent Garden, London,

Points to consider

- Sky TV, big screen England rugby final live on Saturday fans gather here to watch matches
- Fruit and quiz machines
- Serves a simple yet quality menu (good steak and kidney pie, Moroccan salad, battered haddock and a selection of sandwiches and burgers)
- A small selection of quality draught beers and ciders. Fairly large wine list
- The Essex Serpent has plenty of charisma and its Saturday rugby games make it well worth paying a visit
- In the heart of London

DIALOGUE – 12

TASK 2.12
 INTERACTION

CANDIDATE B

In this part of the exam, you are going to take part in a conversation with the other candidate. You have different information about an imaginary situation. The conversation will last about 5 minutes.

A memorable evening

You and your partner have decided to go have a nice meal out. You have both agreed to look for a place in central London so that you can have a drink or two and use public transport to get back home. You are a theatre lover and wouldn't mind seeing a play and eating well on the same evening. Your taste in food is more sophisticated than your partner's. Share the information with your partner and decide which place is best.

SARASTRO'S Drury Lane, London

Points to consider

- Conveniently-located dining destination near major train stations. Opposite The Old Vic Theatre.
- Attracts everyone from nearby office workers to commuters, travellers and theatre-goers.
- The menu is mostly French, with an occasional British twist.
- Prices vary from about £7 to £14 for starters and mains from about £10 to £20. Desserts are £5.50 and include nicely sized chocolate fondant.
- The wine list is long and affordable. Long-list of reasonably-priced cocktails as well.

Pre and post theatre menus available.
