

SET 1 CANDIDATE A

TASK 2 DIALOGUE

- Now you will have a conversation with your partner about an imaginary situation for about 5 to 6 minutes.
- Remember it is a conversation, so be participative and avoid very short answers.
- Your partner has the same topic but different information.
- If possible, try to reach an agreement at the end of the conversation.

A SUNDAY OUT

You and a friend of yours are planning to spend Sunday out of your city. You both live in Glasgow and have decided to get away from the crowd. You would love to spend the day in the countryside, relaxing. These are the ideal activities for you:

- Climb Ben A'an, a beautiful mountain only 45 minutes away (reaching the summit only takes 1 hour and a half).
- Have a picnic in the forest. You'll have to bring food and drink.
- Go for a walk by the shore of Loch Katrine.
- Relax in the country and be in contact with nature.

SET 1 CANDIDATE B

TASK 2 DIALOGUE

- Now you will have a conversation with your partner about an imaginary situation for about 5 to 6 minutes.
- Remember it is a conversation, so be participative and avoid very short answers.
- Your partner has the same topic but different information.
- If possible, try to reach an agreement at the end of the conversation.

A SUNDAY OUT

You and a friend of yours are planning to spend Sunday out of your city. You both live in Glasgow and have decided to get away from the crowd. You would love to visit a small town, Stirling, which you have never seen before and is only 27 miles away. These are the ideal activities for you:

- Visit the castle and the old town, which is full of history and monuments.
- Have lunch in a cosy restaurant where you can try home-made haggis, a typical Scottish dish.
- Go for a walk in The King's park, a beautiful public park which has a golf course, playing fields, play park, etc. It is one of Stirling's best used recreation areas.
- Visit the Changing Room Museum, a gallery for contemporary art (you love art).