PUBLIC TRANSPORT OR PRIVATE VEHICLE?

You live in the suburbs and you got a new job downtown. To get there, you hesitate between public or private transport. Even though the location of your new position is well communicated, the option you prefer is buying a car and you ask a friend. Here you have some ideas to discuss this topic. You start the conversation.

- Beauty of a car and its interior comfort
- The pleasure of driving and its speed
- Convenience and flexibility
- Ecological alternatives

PUBLIC TRANSPORT OR PRIVATE VEHICLE?

Your friend has found a job in the city centre. He asks you for advice on the possibility of using public or private transport. Concerned about protecting the environment, you think public transport is the best option. Here you have some ideas to discuss this topic. Your partner starts the conversation.

- Good transport service and cheaper than a car
- Less stress and pollution
- The dangers of the road
- Other alternatives: bike, carpool...
